

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 2007

CONTACT: Chris Sweeney, 315-446-0125 ext.105, chriss@expressmart.com

New and Improved Express Mart Opening in Elma

Express Mart builds a new store and offers more than just convenience

DeWitt, NY – Express Mart Convenience Stores has added another store to its already 50-plus New York State locations. The newest addition at 661 Jamison Road in Elma, is scheduled to open to the public on Friday, August 24th and will host a Grand Opening celebration in September.

This location will offer customers a cutting edge convenience store experience. With a wide array of snacks and beverages the store also offers hot pizza and fresh produce. This location has been closed for updating since mid-June and all are happy to see it re-open.

“This store really represents the new wave of convenience”, Chris Sweeney, Director of Marketing for Express Mart states. “We have worked hard to offer the complete shopping experience to our customers.”

About Express Mart

Express Mart is a chain of convenience stores and is wholly owned and operated by Petr-All Petroleum Corporation. Founded in 1975, Petr-All Petroleum is a wholesale supply and distribution company of gasoline and diesel fuel. Express Mart was created in 1989 as a way to better serve the customer by not just offering gasoline, but all convenience needs. Since then, Express Mart has grown to over 50 retail outlets throughout Upstate New York as well as several franchise locations. Express Mart puts the customer first and is constantly seeking out new ways to bring you Around The Clock Convenience. For more information, visit www.expressmart.com.

###