

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 2007

CONTACT: Chris Sweeney, 315-446-0125 ext.105, chriss@expressmart.com

Express Mart Opens Second Location with Tim Horton's The convenience store has partnered again with the coffee giant

DeWitt, NY – Express Mart Convenience Stores will open its second location with Tim Horton's. The newest addition at 1235 Colvin Boulevard in Tonawanda, is scheduled to open to the public on Friday, December 28th and will host a Grand Opening celebration in mid-January. The first location the two participated in together opened in August at 661 Jamison Road in Elma, NY.

This location will offer customers a cutting edge convenience store selling not only Mobil gasoline but hot pizza and Anchor Bar wings. The store also offers sandwiches, beverages, snacks alongside grocery items.

"Partnering with Tim Horton's really gives the customer a new and exciting buying experience." Chris Sweeney, Director of Marketing for Express Mart, states. "We both share a commitment to quality and a dedication to the community that fits well together."

Express Mart and Tim Hortons are planning a Grand Opening for the location in mid-January. They plan to offer a pizza/wing deal as well as specials on everything from milk and eggs to beer and pop.

About Express Mart

Express Mart is a chain of convenience stores and is wholly owned and operated by Petr-All Petroleum Corporation. Founded in 1975, Petr-All Petroleum is a wholesale supply and distribution company of gasoline and diesel fuel. Express Mart was created in 1989 as a way to better serve the customer by not just offering gasoline, but all convenience needs. Since then, Express Mart has grown to over 50 retail outlets throughout Upstate New York as well as several franchise locations. Express Mart puts the customer first and is constantly seeking out new ways to bring you Around The Clock Convenience. For more information, visit www.expressmart.com.

###